Ready Steady Write

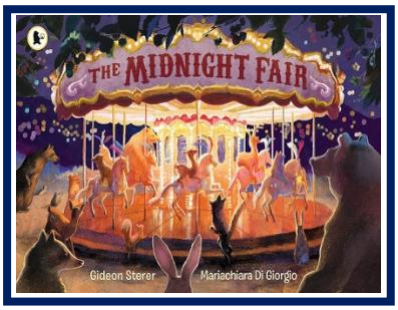
Autumn 2: Midnight Fair

Writing Outcome:

Trespass Narrative

Purpose:

To Narrate



Spelling:

attached awkward, curiosity, determined, environment, familiar, immediately, mischievous, occupy, queue, recognise, rhythm

Text Type Features

-Build excitement and tension towards a high-impact resolution.
- Combine action, dialogue and description to advance the plot.
- Develop consistent characters through description.
- Describe settings that suggest danger or adventure.
- Use dialogue to advance the action or create tension.
- Use paragraphs to control pace.
- Vary story openings.
- Use powerful verbs and evocative vocabulary to describe characters, settings and action.
- Use short sentences to heighten tension and suspense.
- Include clues that hint at what might happen next.

Writer's Knowledge

-Adverbs for time, place and manner.
- Prefixes to change the meaning of a verb.
- Powerful verbs to show how things move.
- Prepositions within expanded noun phrases.
- Figurative language to help the reader picture something.
- Fronted adverbials for time, place and manner, followed by a comma.
- Speech punctuated correctly.
- Senses to describe the atmosphere in the fairground.

Example Text Vocabulary

- prised
- gnarled
- wafted
- glazed
- souvenir
- head swam
- distant hum
- kernels
- Ferris wheel
- dodgem

Palace Fields Primary School