7) School ethos

Palace•Fields Primary School community recognises that all forms of bullying, especially if left unaddressed, can have a devastating effect on individuals; it can create a barrier to learning and have serious consequences for mental wellbeing.

By effectively preventing and tackling bullying our school can help to create a safe and disciplined environment, where pupils are able to learn and fulfil their potential.

Our Community:

- Monitors and reviews our anti-bullying policy and practice on a regular basis. Supports staff to promote positive relationships to help prevent bullying.
- Recognises that some members of our community may be more vulnerable to bullying and its impact than others; this may include children with SEND. Being aware of this will help us to develop effective strategies to prevent bullying from happening and provide appropriate support, if required.
- Will intervene by identifying and tackling bullying behaviour appropriately and promptly.
- Ensures our pupils are aware that bullying concerns will be dealt with sensitively and effectively; that everyone should feel safe to learn and abide by the antibullying policy. Requires all members of the community to work with the school to uphold the anti- bullying policy.

- Recognises the potential impact of bullying on the wider family of those affected so will work in partnership with parents/carers regarding all reported bullying concerns and will seek to keep them informed at all stages.
- Will deal promptly with grievances regarding the school response to bullying in line with our complaints policy
- Seeks to learn from good anti-bullying practice elsewhere.
- Utilises support from the Local Authority and other relevant organisations when appropriate.

8) Responding to bullying

The following steps may be taken when dealing with all incidents of bullying reported to the school:

- If bullying is suspected or reported, the incident will be dealt with immediately by the member of staff who has been approached or witnessed the concern.
- The school will provide appropriate support for the person being bullied – making sure they are not at risk of immediate harm and will involve them in any decision-making, as appropriate.
- The Head of School or another member of leadership staff will interview all parties involved. The DSL will be informed of all bullying issues where there are safeguarding concerns. The school will speak with and inform other staff members, where appropriate.
- The school will ensure parents/carers are kept informed about the concern and action taken, as appropriate and in line with child protection and confidentiality policies.
- Sanctions, as identified within the school behaviour policy, and support will be implemented in consultation with all parties concerned.
- If necessary, other agencies may be consulted or involved, such as the police, if a criminal offence has been committed, or other local services including early help or children's social care, if a child is felt to be at risk of significant harm.
- Where the bullying of or by pupils takes place off school site or outside of normal school hours (including cyberbullying), the school will ensure that the concern is fully investigated. If required, the DSL will collaborate with other schools. Appropriate action will be taken, including providing support and implementing sanctions in school in accordance with this policy and the school's behaviour policy.
- A clear and precise account of bullying incidents will be recorded by the school in accordance with existing procedures. This will include recording appropriate details regarding decisions and action taken.

Cyberbullying (Staff will ensure that they access Childnet's Cyberbullying guidance when dealing with any incidents of this nature.)

When responding to cyberbullying concerns, the school will:

- Act as soon as an incident has been reported or identified.
- Provide appropriate support for the person who has been cyberbullied and work with the person who has carried out the bullying to ensure that it does not happen again.
- Encourage the person being bullied to keep any evidence (screenshots) of the bullying activity to assist any investigation.
- Take all available steps where possible to identify the person responsible.

This may include:

- looking at use of the school systems;
- identifying and interviewing possible witnesses;
- Contacting the service provider and the police, if necessary.

- Work with the individuals and online service providers to prevent the incident from spreading and assist in removing offensive or upsetting material from circulation.

This may include:

- Support reports to a service provider to remove content if those involved are unable to be identified or if those involved refuse to or are unable to delete content.
- Confiscating and searching pupils' electronic devices, such as mobile phones, in accordance with the law and the school searching and confiscation policy. (Staff will ensure that they follow Palace Fields Primary School's behaviour policy, DfE and Childnet cyberbullying guidance to ensure that the schools powers are used proportionately and lawfully)
- Requesting the deletion of locally-held content and content posted online if they contravene school behavioural policies.
- Ensure that sanctions are applied to the person responsible for the cyberbullying; the school will take steps to change the attitude and behaviour of the bully, as well as ensuring access to any additional help that they may need.
- Inform the police if a criminal offence has been committed.
- Provide information to staff and pupils regarding steps they can take to protect themselves online.

This may include:

- advising those targeted not to retaliate or reply;
- providing advice on blocking or removing people from contact lists;
- helping those involved to think carefully about what private information they may have in the public domain.

Zero-tolerance approach to sexual harassment and sexual violence

Palace Fields Primary School will ensure that all incidents of sexual harassment and/or violence are met with a suitable response, and never ignored.

Child on Child Abuse

Below is a list of what counts as a problematic and unacceptable behaviour. Child on Child abuse is most likely to include, but may not be limited to:

- bullying (including cyberbullying, prejudice-based and discriminatory bullying);
- abuse in intimate personal relationships between children;
- physical abuse such as hitting, kicking, shaking, biting, hair pulling, or otherwise causing physical harm (this may include an online element which facilitates, threatens and/or encourages physical abuse);
- sexual violence, such as rape, assault by penetration and sexual assault; (this may include an online element which facilitates, threatens and/or encourages sexual violence);
- sexual harassment, such as sexual comments, remarks, jokes and online sexual harassment, which may be standalone or part of a broader pattern of abuse;
- causing someone to engage in sexual activity without consent, such as forcing someone to strip, touch themselves sexually, or to engage in sexual activity with a third party;
- consensual and non-consensual sharing of nudes and semi nudes images and or videos (also known as sexting or youth produced sexual imagery);

- upskirting, which typically involves taking a picture under a person's clothing without their permission, with the intention of viewing their genitals or buttocks to obtain sexual gratification, or cause the victim humiliation, distress or alarm;
- initiation/hazing type violence and rituals (this could include activities involving harassment, abuse or humiliation used as a way of initiating a person into a group and may also include an online element).

The principle of a zero-tolerance approach

At Palace Fields Primary School, zero-tolerance means that any incident will be proportionate, considered, supportive and decided on a case-by-case basis in line with the sanctions within this behaviour policy. We will consider the age and developmental stage of the alleged perpetrator(s), the nature and frequency of the alleged incident(s) and how to balance the sanction alongside education and safeguarding support (if necessary, these should take place at the same time).

At Palace Fields Primary School, we will not tolerate Child on Child abuse but we will not demonise any child.

We will support and listen to all of the children involved. The alleged perpetrator(s) will be offered support so that they can change their behaviour.

The response to each incident should be proportionate. For example, we might address a 'lower-level' incident such as a sexist comment through education, our curriculum and the way our school promotes respect.

The use of exclusion from school will only be in the most severe cases, for example if the police recommend we exclude a child after an incident of sexual assault. If this happens and we still wish to keep the child in school, we will need mitigations in place to protect other children, such as keeping that child in isolation. We will balance the importance of safeguarding other children with the need to support, educate and protect the alleged perpetrator(s). We will gently but firmly condemn the behaviour, not the child.

The DSL will have a plan in place to help the alleged perpetrator(s) modify their behaviour – this may involve counselling or clinical care.

We will keep victims at a reasonable distance from the alleged perpetrator(s) while on the school premises (including during any before or after school-based activities).

We will listen and take the wishes of the victim(s) into account and that their wishes will inform our response, but the DSL will make the final decision.

Some victims might prefer that the alleged perpetrator(s) move class, whereas others may prefer that they stay in their class but just not sitting next to them. For example, if a victim is afraid of how the friends of the alleged perpetrator(s) might react if their friend was removed from class, the victim might prefer to not be put in this situation.

The process for responding to reported incidents

This section is to be read in conjunction with our safeguarding policy. If staff are dealing with an allegation of Child-on-Child abuse, they should follow the school's safeguarding policy.

A risk-assessment will be carried out by the DSL (or a deputy) and will take the lead, supported by other agencies as required.

This will be:

- Decided on a case-by-case basis;
- Underpinned by the principle of a zero-tolerance approach (see above) to sexual violence and sexual harassment, meaning it's never acceptable and it won't be tolerated.

By carrying out the risk assessment, this will inform whether we need to:

- Manage the incident internally;
- Refer to early help;
- Refer to children's social care;
- Report to the police.

Reporting Behaviours

'Lower-level' incidents are far more frequent than severe incidents, and can underpin the problematic 'normalised' culture. Children should call out and report anything that makes them uncomfortable, no matter how 'small' they think it is. We will always take their safety and wellbeing seriously, listen to them, act on their concerns and not tolerate or accept abuse.

Reporting incidents benefits everyone, including:

- The victim(s): by stopping the problem and getting the help and support they need
- Other people: by preventing it happening to someone else
- The alleged perpetrator(s): catching problematic behaviour early can help them avoid criminal offences later in life

Calling out behaviour as it happens will help all children understand what is and is not acceptable. If the incident is very 'low level' – for example, a child making a comment that staff have reason to believe they don't fully understand – it may be appropriate to explain why it wasn't acceptable and ask the child to apologise to the victim on the spot.

If a child displays any of the above behaviours, Palace Fields Primary School will involve parents immediately. We will let parents know what their child has said or done, and that we would like them to talk about it as a family.

This will help:

- Get the parents on board in condemning the behaviour;
- Start an important conversation between the child and their parents about acceptable and unacceptable sexual behaviour;
- Work towards a solution together.

This can just be a quick phone call, but it's important that it happens immediately and every time staff have concerns about their child's behaviour.

All incidents will be logged on our online reporting system called CPOMS

Supporting pupils

Pupils who have been bullied will be supported by:

- Reassuring the pupil and providing continuous pastoral support.
- Offering an immediate opportunity to discuss the experience with their teacher, the designated safeguarding lead, or a member of staff of their choice.

- Being advised to keep a record of the bullying as evidence and discuss how respond to concerns and build resilience as appropriate.
- Working towards restoring self-esteem and confidence.
- Providing ongoing support; this may include: working and speaking with staff, offering formal counselling, engaging with parents and carers.
- Where necessary, working with the wider community and local/national organisations to provide further or specialist advice and guidance; this could include support through Early Help or Specialist Children's Services, or support through the Children and Young People's Mental Health Service (CYPMHS).

Pupils who have perpetrated bullying will be helped by:

- Discussing what happened, establishing the concern and the need to change.
- Informing parents/carers to help change the attitude and behaviour of the child. Providing appropriate education and support regarding their behaviour or actions.
- If online, requesting that content be removed and reporting accounts/content to service provider.
- Sanctioning, in line with school behaviour/discipline policy; this may include official warnings, detentions, removal of privileges (including online access when encountering cyberbullying concerns), and fixed-term or permanent exclusions.
- Where necessary, working with the wider community and local/national organisations to provide further or specialist advice and guidance; this may include involvement from the Police or referrals to Early Help, Specialist Children's Services, or the Children and Young People's Mental Health Service (CYPMHS).

Supporting adults

Our school takes measures to prevent and tackle bullying among pupils; however, it is equally important to recognise that bullying of adults, including staff and parents, whether by pupils, parents or other staff members, is unacceptable.

Adults who have been bullied or affected will be supported by:

- Offering an immediate opportunity to discuss the concern with the designated safeguarding lead, a senior member of staff and/or the principal.
- Advising them to keep a record of the bullying as evidence and discuss how to respond to concerns and build resilience, as appropriate.
- Where the bullying takes place off school site or outside of normal school hours (including online), the school will still investigate the concern and ensure that appropriate action is taken in accordance with the schools' behaviour and discipline policy.
- Reporting offensive or upsetting content and/or accounts to the service provider, where the bullying has occurred online.
- Reassuring and offering appropriate support. Working with the wider community and local/national organisations to provide further or specialist advice and guidance.

Adults who have perpetrated the bullying will be helped by:

- Discussing what happened with a senior member of staff and/or the principal to establish the concern.
- Establishing whether a legitimate grievance or concern has been raised and signposting to the school's official complaints procedures.
- If online, requesting that content be removed.
- Instigating disciplinary, civil or legal action as appropriate or required.

Specific guidance is available for leaders regarding dealing with complaints made on social networking sites:
