

Urban and Rural

Urban

Rural

Key Concepts

- Locational Knowledge
- Physical and Human features
- Place knowledge
- Skills and fieldwork

Sticky Knowledge

- The UK has diverse land use; including rural and urban areas.
- The five counties of the Northwest are: Merseyside, Lancashire, Greater Manchester, Cheshire and Cumbria.
- OS maps use symbols to identify locations. The key can be used to read them.
- Rural and urban areas of the UK are connected by roads and rail.
- Trade links are made between rural and urban areas of the UK.
- The compass has 8 points.

Vocabulary

- Rural- countryside.
- Urban- town or city.
- Countryside- a place located away from towns and cities.
- Amenities- a useful or pleasant facility or service.
- County- a name for a piece of land controlled by a local government.
- Trade – the buying and selling of good and services.
- OS Maps- Ordnance survey map.
- OS Symbols- Easily understood map language.